

Entries
Entrées / Entradas

Visas

Departures
Sorties / Salidas

Entries
Entrées / Entradas

Visas

Departures
Sorties / Salidas

South America

The Discreet Hero by Mario Vargas Llosa – An insurance company owner crosses paths with a blackmail victim in Peru.

The Gold Eaters by Ronald Wright – A young Incan boy gets swept into Francisco Pizarro's 16th-century conquest of Peru.

Ways to Disappear by Idra Novey- When a famous Brazilian novelist goes missing, her American translator searches for her.

What We Become by Arturo Perez-Reverte - A tango dancer turned thief and a society woman engage in a passionate affair.

North America

As Close to Us as Breathing by Elizabeth Poliner- In 1948, a trio of sisters experience joy and pain as they vacation together.

City of the Lost by Kelley Armstrong – A detective is faced with a murder in a town off the grid in the wilds of Canada.

LaRose by Louise Erdrich – After accidentally killing a child on a reservation, a man gives the child's family his son.

The Marriage of Opposites by Alice Hoffman - The story of the mother of painter Camille Pissarro set on St. Thomas.

The Opposite of Everyone by Joshilyn Jackson – A lawyer's life is upended after getting a message from her estranged mother.

The Passenger by Lisa Lutz- A woman creates and sheds new identities as she crisscrosses the USA to escape her past.

Terror in Taffeta by Marla Cooper- A wedding planner must solve the murder of a bridesmaid in Mexico.

Non-Fiction

The Bad-Ass Librarians of Timbuktu by Joshua Hammer-A devoted collector of manuscripts outwits militant jihadis.

Lab Girl by Hope Jahren – Memoir of a biologist whose love of plants takes her across the United States and to the North Pole.

The Only Street in Paris by Elaine Sciolino – A former Paris Bureau Chief of the NYT tells of her favorite Parisian street.

Pirate Hunters by Robert Kurson – The adventures of treasure hunters as they try to find a 17th century sunken pirate ship.

Novel Destinations

Britt-Marie Was Here by Fredrik Backman – A fussy woman leaves her husband and finds her life turned upside-down.

The Curious Charms of Arthur Pepper by Phaedra Patrick- An English widower goes on a quest to discover his wife's past.

Every Heart a Doorway by Seanan McGuire-What happens to children who visit fantasy lands when they return to reality?

Flight of Dreams by Ariel Lawhon -A fictional account of the 1937 flight and the crash of the airship Hindenburg.

A Murder in Time by Julie McElwain – A tough, modern female FBI finds herself chasing a killer in the 19th century England.

The Travelers by Chris Pavone- A beautiful woman draws a married travel writer into a web of international intrigue.

When the Moon Is Low by Nadia Hashimi-a former teacher tries to escapes from Afghanistan to England with her children.

Entries
Entrées / Entradas

Visas

Departures
Sorties / Salidas

Entries
Entrées / Entradas

Visas

Departures
Sorties / Salidas

Asia/Middle East

Before We Visit the Goddess by Chitra Banerjee Divakaruni- A poor baker's daughter in India dreams of going to college.

Beijing Red by Alex Ryan –An ex-Navy SEAL goes to China and stumbles into a conspiracy related to a deadly disease outbreak.

The Expatriates by Janice Y. K. Lee –Three American women living in Hong Kong experience love, loss and uncertain futures.

Re Jane by Patricia Park – A half-Korean orphan from Queens flies to Seoul after a death and reconnects with her family.

The Rent Collector by Cameron Wright - A Cambodian woman attempts to save her ailing son from a life of poverty.

Saving Sophie by Ronald Balson – The retrieval of a kidnapped girl is complicated by a terrorism plot against Israel.

The Translation of Love by Lynne Kutsukake – Returning to Japan after WWII, a girl searches for her friend's missing sister.

Africa

Circling the Sun by Paula McLain –A fictional account of the life of aviator Beryl Markham set in Kenya in the 1920's.

Homegoing by Yaa Gyasi-Two half-sisters, unknown to each other live very different lives in 18th century Ghana.

Something to Hide by Deborah Moggach- The lives of four women from far-flung places interconnect in West Africa.

The Tears of Dark Water by Corban Addison - Somali pirates highjack a sailboat taking an American father and son hostage.

Europe

Sisi by Allison Pataki –The Empress Elisabeth of Austria-Hungary reigns during a vibrant but volatile time.

Garden of Letters by Alyson Richman- A cello prodigy involved in the resistance in Italy is taken in by a doctor.

I Let You Go by Clare Mackintosh – A mother moves to Wales after her son's death as the investigation of his death continues.

A Strangeness in My Mind by Orhan Pamuk- The tale of an Istanbul street vendor and the love of his life.

This Too Shall Pass by Milena Busquets- After her mother's death, a woman leaves Barcelona for an idyll of sun, sea and sex.

I'm Traveling Alone by Samuel Bjor – Two Norwegian detectives reunite to hunt down a vengeful child killer.

The Yid by Paul Goldberg - A Jewish actor's response to the Moscow pogrom triggers a zany and deadly series of events.

Australia

A Drop in the Ocean by Jenni Ogden- After a career setback, a woman flees Boston to an island on the Great Barrier Reef.

Railwayman's Wife by Ashley Hay –In the aftermath of World War II, a widow, a poet, and a doctor search for peace.

Relativity by Antonia Hayes - A gifted boy tries to discover the truth about his past despite his overprotective mother.

Tumbledown Manor by Helen Brown – A novelist starts a new life as she renovates her family's dilapidated country manor.