Dear Patrons,

I drove to work this morning and looked at the beautiful changing colors of the trees. Fall is here now, I am writing to you about the holidays, thinking that I just did this not too long ago, and experiencing the significance of how quickly time moves.

The Library construction is running apace. As construction goes forward on the majority of the building, we are comfortably nestled into our smaller, cozy space on the west side. Use the East Meadow Ave entrance to the parking lot. Please come and visit us.

You can still take out materials, ask our Reference department those difficult questions, bring teens and children to programs in this space, visit our Geeks for tech help, and enjoy the Library. Or, visit us while you stay at home at www.eastmeadow.info. Don’t forget our new streaming services: Kanopy and Kanopy kids for quality entertainment, Acorn TV for extraordinary international television and film, Great Courses, Test Prep and so much more. Entertainment, classes, the latest news, books, children’s content are all available to you through EMPL’s website as you relax at home. Even over the holidays!

Don’t forget, programming is still active. Our Sunday Performance Series is in full swing. Bring the family to Samanea NY (formerly the Source Mall) to have some holiday fun with The Elder Statesmen before Thanksgiving. In December join us for Brady Rymer and the Little Band that Could, The Kenahora Klezmer Band, Christopher Morrengiello with Renaissance music will set the perfect calming holiday mood. You can find all of these in this Newsletter. OH, YES! By all means, do not miss the Veterans Day Celebration with Swingtime Big Band on Sunday, November 10. Visit the opening of our Veterans Arts Show on that same day.

Our holiday wishes for you all are that you enjoy a happy, healthy, peaceful 2020. Visit the Library throughout the year to discover something new every day, to expand your universe, and to come together as a community.

Inheritance by Dani Shapiro
Tuesday, January 21 at 1 p.m.
Moderator: Anna Katsavos
Location: SAMANEA NY (The Former Source Mall)

Inheritance is a book about secrets—secrets within families, kept out of shame or self-protectiveness; secrets we keep from one another in the name of love. It is the story of a woman’s urgent quest to unlock the story of her own identity, a story that has been scrupulously hidden from her for more than fifty years, years she had spent writing brilliantly, and compulsively, on themes of identity and family history. It is a book about the extraordinary moment in which we live—a moment in which science and technology have outpaced not only medical ethics but also the capacities of the human heart to contend with the consequences of what we discover.

Her beauty almost certainly saved her from the rising Nazi party, and led to marriage with an Austrian arms dealer. Underestimated in everything else, she overheard the Third Reich’s plans while at her husband’s side, understanding more than anyone would guess. She devised a plan to flee in disguise from their castle, and the whirlwind escape landed her in Hollywood. She became Hedy Lamarr, screen star. She kept a secret more shocking than her heritage, or her marriage: she was a scientist. And she knew a few secrets about the enemy. She had an idea that might help the country fight the Nazis . . . if anyone would listen to her. A powerful novel based on the incredible true story of the glamour icon and scientist, whose groundbreaking invention revolutionized modern communication.
Once Upon a River
by Diane Setterfield
Tuesday, November 19 at 7:30 p.m.
Location: East Meadow Jewish Center

Once Upon a River is a glorious tapestry of a book that combines folklore and science, magic and myth. Suspenseful, romantic, and richly atmospheric, the beginning of this novel will sweep you away on a powerful current of storytelling. The current continues to transport you through worlds both real and imagined, until the triumphant conclusion . . . whose depths will continue to give up their treasures long after the last page is turned.
It’s that time of year when the world falls in love with holiday romances. The weather outside is frightful, but these books are so delightful . . . so curl up with one and a cup of cocoa, and let it snow, let it snow, let it snow.

Royal Holiday by Jasmine Guillory - Vivian, a woman in her mid-50s, takes a spontaneous holiday vacation to England, where she has the opportunity to stay in the residence of royalty, and there finds unexpected romance.

Christmas from the Heart by Sheila Roberts - CFO Guy’s Maserati breaks down and he is rescued by the head of the charity he refused to fund. Will the holiday spirit in the charming town of Pine River melt the heart of a modern day Scrooge?

Coming Home for Christmas by RaeAnne Thayne - Luke thought his wife died 7 years ago, but when he finds her alive, he brings her home to their children. Can they become a family again over the course of the Christmas season?

Finding Christmas by Karen Schaler - Emmie’s Christmas scavenger hunt brings the wrong man to the charming town of Christmas Point, but when sparks fly she will need the magic of the season to help steer her in the direction of true love.

Christmas in Silver Spring by Brenda Novak - Dumped by her rock star husband, Elle heads to her sister’s place in Silver Springs where she unexpectedly finds herself attracted to a local, who unbeknownst to her has a criminal past. Can the holiday season lead to forgiveness and love?

Spirit of the Season by Fern Michaels - Fulfilling her late grandmother’s will by running the family B&B over the holidays, Joy discovers a local belief that guests can reunite with the spirits of loved ones. Joy is skeptical, yet she feels her beloved Nana’s influence . . . perhaps even indulging in a little matchmaking.

Wrapped Up in You by Jill Shalvis - After an unreliable childhood, Ivy values stability. As a result, she resists the advances of a man she believes will prove temporary, a vacationing rancher with insecurities of his own. Can they allow themselves the gift of love for the holidays?

The Christmas Sisters by Sarah Morgan - When problems threaten the holidays they traditionally share in their snowy Scottish Highlands home, three adopted sisters work together to host guests, including three romance-minded suitors.

It’s a Christmas Thing by Janet Dailey - Veterinarian, Rush, who lost custody of the girl he thought was his daughter, is in Texas running his mobile vet practice, just hoping to get through the season, until a Christmas miracle happens.
