The Library’s Board, Administration, and Staff continue to work on the renovation of this building. We are happy to report that we will be staying in a portion of the building while the construction goes on. The project has gone out to bid and by the time you read this, we will have the results.

If you have any questions, the Director’s door is always open to you, or you may come to a Board Meeting with your concerns. This is your Library and we welcome your involvement.

Now, to the new proposed Library Budget. You will find it below and on pages 10 & 11 in English. The Spanish version of the Budget can be found on pages 12 & 13 and in Urdu on pages 14 & 15. We are pleased that we are within the tax cap as prescribed by law. Please, take the opportunity to look at the long form of the budget distributed at the Library, and on our website at www.eastmeadow.info. This will explain the budget in more detail. Or, come to our Budget Board meeting on Wednesday, May 8 at 8 p.m. which will be held at the EM Fire Department, next to EMPL.

Revenue

We are within the tax cap as prescribed by law. The budget line for fines has been reduced, and the line for vending (copy machines) has been increased.

Expenditures

Personnel & Employee Benefits — The line for personnel services has decreased due to retirements. It includes the state’s minimum wage increase to $13 per hour. Employee benefits remain flat despite the rise in the cost of health care.

PROGRAMMING DURING CONSTRUCTION

As we get closer to the beginning of construction, you will notice that more and more programs will be held in interim spaces around East Meadow. All programs are moving out of the building as of June. We will be continually updating this Newsletter with important news. Please keep checking our updated Newsletters for the latest information.

May programs are scheduled at the Library. June locations will be announced shortly. Each program description in the Newsletter will have the location listed below the program title. Spaces will be color coded so you can easily identify the location. On page 34 of this Newsletter you will find names, addresses, and simple directions to each location.

We know that sometimes change is difficult. This might be particularly true when the change is temporary. However, we look at this as broadening our scope in East Meadow, meeting new people, discovering new places, and gaining new resources.

As we embark on this journey together, we understand that it might take a while to get used to the different locations. The staff of EMPL is no exception. We are working to make everything go as smoothly as possible. Please be patient if there are some glitches along the way. We are all learning a new way of life for a relatively short period of time. Remember, our ultimate goal is to create a new, efficient, and exciting environment for you at your Library.

We have color-coded the different locations: Calvary Luthern Church, Cradle of Aviation, E.M. Jewish Center, E.M. United Methodist Church, Hofstra University, Nassau Library System

Thank you in advance for your patience, cooperation and good will. It will be an exciting and new adventure for all of us.

Furniture and Equipment — The furniture and equipment budget lines have increased to facilitate use of the temporary space. Since we will not be able to serve as many people with our Wi-Fi in the building, we are going to circulate mobile hotspots to our residents with a 14-day loan. If you are interested, please make your way to the Reference Desk, and they will be happy to help you.

Books — In anticipation of our temporary move, funds for purchasing books in print format have been temporarily relocated to purchase eBooks, so patrons will have a varied selection in our eBook collection, Overdrive. Take a look at our website, www.eastmeadow.info, under eBooks & audiobooks, to search for titles. Be sure to download the new Libby app on your device. It’s free with your library card!

Audio-Visual Services — The computer software line and museum passes line have increased to keep pace with user demand.

Material Services — There has been an increase in the fee for the software which manages circulation. The Nassau Library System fee pays for the delivery service amongst the libraries.

eBooks — As stated above, with the move to the temporary and smaller location, funds have been moved from print purchases to eBook purchases. To support reference service, we have also added money to the electronic resources line.

Programs and Exhibits — As always, our programs continue to be popular. It is our intent to continue to offer quality programming, even in our temporary location. We are looking for alternate locations to have these programs, and once finalized, will announce these locations.

Film — These lines have increased to purchase Kanopy and another streaming service for films, which is on the same platform as the digital magazines. Look for these two services to debut in July, 2019.

Periodicals & Newspapers, Library Supplies & Services, and Building Expenses — These lines have all stayed the same.

Building Expenses — Two lines have been added: van rental, to move material between our locations, and temporary occupancy costs which will cover whatever has not been anticipated.

Respectfully submitted,
Michael Turner, President
Janet Barsky, Vice President
Audrey Fixell, Lori Hoffman, Ellen Matishek

ANNUAL MESSAGE FROM YOUR LIBRARY BOARD 2019/2020

Como es de su conocimiento, la Junta, la Administración y el Personal de la Biblioteca continúan trabajando en la renovación de este edificio. Nos complace informar que nos alojaremos en una parte del edificio mientras la construcción se realiza justo al lado. El proyecto ha salido a licitación y para cuando lea esto, tendremos los resultados.

Ahora es el momento de hablar sobre el presupuesto del próximo año para el Presupuesto Operativo 2019/2020 de la Biblioteca. Puede notar que el presupuesto se ha reestructurado para mayor claridad, es decir, los libros electrónicos ahora tienen su propia categoría en lugar de ser incluidos (y perdidos) bajo otro encabezado.

Por favor, aproveche esta oportunidad para estudiar el formulario entero distribuido en la recepción y en nuestro sitio web (eastmeadow.info), notará que el presupuesto se ha reorganizado. Refleja los diversos formatos que pueden ser de su interés: libros, películas, pases de museos, publicaciones periódicas, libros electrónicos, programas y materiales audiovisuales (música y audio hablado).

El siguiente es un resumen del presupuesto de biblioteca propuesto para 2019/2020:

Ingresos

Estamos dentro del tope fiscal que prescribe la ley. La línea presupuestaria para multas se ha reducido, y la línea para intereses y ‘vending’ (máquinas copiadoras) se ha aumentado.

Gastos

Beneficios para Personal y Empleados: la línea de servicios de personal ha disminuido debido a las jubilaciones. Incluye el aumento del salario mínimo del estado a $ 13 por hora. Los beneficios para empleados permanecen sin cambios a pesar del aumento en el costo de la atención médica.

Muebles y Equipos: las líneas presupuestarias de muebles y equipos se han incrementado para facilitar el uso del espacio temporal. Dado que no podremos atender a tantas personas con nuestra conexión Wi-Fi en el edificio, vamos a hacer circular puntos de acceso móviles a nuestros residentes con un préstamo de 14 días. Si está interesado, diríjase al mostrador de referencia y estarán encantados de ayudarle.

Libros: en previsión de nuestro traslado temporal, los fondos para comprar libros en formato impreso se han reubicado temporalmente para comprar libros electrónicos, por lo que los usuarios tendrán una selección variada en nuestra colección de libros electrónicos, Nassau Digital Doorway. Eche un vistazo a nuestro sitio web, eastmeadow.info, en eBooks y audiolibros, para buscar títulos. Asegúrese de descargar la nueva aplicación Libby en su dispositivo. ¡Es gratis con su tarjeta de biblioteca!

Servicios Audiovisuales: la línea de software y las líneas de pases a los museos se han incrementado para adaptarse a la demanda de los usuarios.

Servicios de Material: ha habido un aumento en la tarifa por el software que gestiona la circulación. La tarifa del Sistema de bibliotecas de Nassau paga el servicio de entrega entre las bibliotecas.

Libros Electrónicos: como se indicó anteriormente, con el traslado a una ubicación más pequeña y temporal, los fondos se han movido de las compras impresas a las compras de libros electrónicos. Para respaldar el servicio de referencia, también hemos agregado dinero a la línea de recursos electrónicos.
Programas y Exposiciones: como siempre, nuestros programas siguen siendo populares. Nuestra intención es continuar ofreciendo programación de calidad incluso en nuestra ubicación temporal. Estamos buscando ubicaciones alternativas para tener estos programas y una vez finalizados se anunciarán esas ubicaciones.

Películas: estas líneas se han incrementado para comprar Kanopy y otro servicio de transmisión de películas que se encuentra en la misma plataforma que las revistas digitales. Busque estos dos servicios que iniciarán en julio de 2019.

Publicaciones Periódicas y Periódicos, Suministros, Servicios de Biblioteca y Gastos de Construcción: todas estas líneas han permanecido sin ningún cambio.

Gastos de Construcción: se han agregado dos líneas: alquiler de furgonetas para que podamos mover material entre nuestras ubicaciones y costos de ocupación temporales que cubrirán lo que no se haya anticipado.

Janet Barsky, Vicepresidenta

In 2014, Theranos founder and CEO Elizabeth Holmes was widely seen as the female Steve Jobs: a brilliant Stanford dropout whose startup “unicorn” promised to revolutionize the medical industry with a machine that would make blood testing significantly faster and easier. Backed by investors such as Larry Ellison and Tim Draper, Theranos sold shares in a fundraising round that valued the company at more than $9 billion, putting Holmes’s worth at an estimated $4.7 billion. There was just one problem: the technology didn’t work.

The Last Days of Night: A Novel by Graham Moore
Moderator: Marion Wrenn
Monday, June 10 at 1 p.m. (At EMPL)
NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER • “A world of invention and skullduggery, populated by the likes of Edison, Westinghouse, and Tesla.”—Erik Larson

From Graham Moore, the Oscar-winning screenwriter of The Imitation Game and New York Times bestselling author of The Sherlockian, comes a thrilling novel—based on actual events—about the nature of genius, the cost of ambition, and the battle to electrify America.

New York, 1888. Gas lamps still flicker in the city streets, but the miracle of electric light is in its infancy. The person who controls the means to turn night into day will make history—and a vast fortune. A young untested lawyer named Paul Cravath takes a case that seems impossible to win. Paul’s client, George Westinghouse, has been sued by Thomas Edison over a billion-dollar question: Who invented the light bulb and holds the right to power the country?

It’s Christmas, and for the first time in years, the Birch family will be under one roof. For the next week, the Birches are locked down, cut off from the rest of humanity and forced into each other’s orbits. Frivolous daughter Phoebe is fixated on her upcoming wedding, while Olivia deals with the culture shock of being immersed in first-world problems. As Andrew sequesters himself in his study, writing scathing restaurant reviews and remembering his glory days as a war correspondent, Emma hides a secret that will turn the whole family upside down. But nothing is more shocking than the unexpected guest who’s about to arrive . . .

A River of Stars by Vanessa Hua
Tuesday, June 18 at 7:30 p.m.
(At East Meadow Jewish Center)
Holed up with other mothers-to-be in a secret maternity home in Los Angeles, Scarlett Chen is far from her native China, where she worked in a factory and fell in love with the married owner, Boss Yeung. Now she’s carrying his baby. To ensure that his first son has every advantage, Boss Yeung has shipped Scarlett off to give birth on American soil. Then a new sonogram of Scarlett’s baby reveals the unexpected. Panicked, she goes on the run by hijacking a van—only to discover that she has taken on a stowaway who intends to track down the father of her own child. The two flee to San Francisco’s bustling Chinatown, where Scarlett will join countless immigrants desperately trying to seize their piece of the American dream. What Scarlett doesn’t know is that her baby’s father is not far behind.
it’s almost summer, and our Summer Reading Club will be ready to join ONLINE, beginning June 6th. However, THIS year, the Reader Services Department is busily preparing to move into our new temporary quarters. In the next few months, the Library will begin its construction project, and the Reading Club must be streamlined to reflect these changes. You will be able to register and share your book reviews online only. We will still hold our book discussions, and maybe a few surprise events, throughout the summer at locations to be determined, and will keep you posted when we line them up.

So THIS summer, as we discover “A Universe of Stories” together, let’s kick back, enjoy the beautiful weather and READ, READ, READ!

Last Days of Night by Graham Moore
Monday, June 10 at 1 p.m.
(At EMPL)
Special Guest Moderator: Marion Wrenn
New York, 1888. Gas lamps still flicker in the city streets, but the miracle of electric light is in its infancy. The person who controls the means to turn night into day will make history—and a vast fortune. A young untested lawyer takes a case that seems impossible to win. His client, George Westinghouse, has been sued by Thomas Edison over a billion-dollar question: Who invented the light bulb and holds the right to power the country? In obsessive pursuit of victory, Paul crosses paths with Nikola Tesla, an eccentric, brilliant inventor who may hold the key to defeating Edison.
RECENT RETIREES

Two of EMPL’s most revered Librarians retired at the end of February. We want our patrons to know where their favorite librarians have gone, and what they plan to do next.

MARCIA BLACKMAN, Head of Reader Services

Marcia Blackman was at EMPL for over 30 years. Patrons love her, staff emulate her, and librarians across the Island respect her. Her energy, intelligence and wit are infectious. She is an innovative dynamo. Keeping up with her is difficult, but always enjoyable.

While the Head of Reader Services, Marcia initiated the Best Sellers Club, Book Club in a Bag, the Summer Reading Club, Evening Book Discussions, and much more. She changed the format of book discussions by finding stellar presenters and encouraging patrons to ask and answer questions. They truly became discussions under her watch.

The Summer Reading Club is one of Marcia’s major achievements. Patron membership for Summer Reading was in the hundreds, unheard of for adult reading clubs. Patrons signed up for the love of reading, Marcia’s interactive book sessions, and the other programs that were held all summer. These events included many author Skypes and visits.

The influx of wonderful authors at East Meadow Public Library is no accident. Marcia cultivated relationships with publishers, publicists and the authors. Then she invited the authors to speak at the Library. They usually agreed. Many authors held her in such high regard, that they sent their good wishes when they heard that she was retiring.

Marcia Blackman has left deep, lasting footprints at EMPL. We are certainly not going to fill them, but we will follow them. There will still be Book Club in a Bag, the Best Sellers Club, Summer Reading, and many book discussions. We will still have author visits and Skypes. In many ways Marcia created the unique identity of Reader Services at the Library. Marcia might have retired, but she will always be at East Meadow Public Library through all that she has created and left to us.

New adventures now await Marcia. She is off to Italy and onto many other places around the world. She is spending time with her family and the causes that she cares about so deeply. Bon voyage, Marcia. Come back and visit often.

LORETTA KELLEHER, Reference Librarian

The New York Times recognized the talents and valuable service of Loretta Kelleher with the NY Times Librarian Award in 2003. She is an exemplary reference librarian with specialties in genealogy. Her depth of knowledge and intelligence is extraordinary.

Loretta Kelleher was at the East Meadow Public Library for 56 years, and was a librarian on Long Island for 63 years. Her curiosity and love of education drew her to librarianship. Loretta and libraries are a natural fit.

Loretta’s abilities to investigate family trees are well-known. She is a member of many genealogy societies and is often called upon by other genealogists for advice.

Perhaps Loretta is best known for her ability to research even the most difficult requests. Whether it be an ancient quote, a long-lost recipe, or the need to find a doctor for a rare disease, Loretta can find it. She is thorough, meticulous and dogged in her efforts. And, it paid off. There is always a positive result.

Yet, there was an event that catapulted Loretta Kelleher into a local celebrity. She was written about in local newspapers, had filmed interviews, and was feted by the police. Loretta caught a real book thief. Someone was stealing very expensive, sometimes rare, reference books from libraries throughout the Metropolitan Area and selling them for big bucks online. He, unfortunately, tried it at EMPL. Loretta realized it right away. Though we did try to stop him, he got away that day. Through diligent cyber-sleuthing, and unrelenting searches, Loretta found rare and expensive books for sale online. She matched the content of the descriptions, the types of books, and the writing styles. She identified and found the culprit. He was arrested and Loretta had a new accomplishment to add to her already bursting biography, Detective Extrodinaire!

Thank you for your service, your dedication, and your understanding of what it really means to be a librarian—service, dedication and the love of knowledge. Enjoy your time writing family history. You will be missed. See you soon.
do not often write about patrons who have passed. However, Lorraine Newman was more than a patron at the East Meadow Public Library. She was a participant in its growth and stability. She was an avid supporter of insuring the outreach and power of the Library. She was a friend to us all.

There are so many things I can write about Lorraine. Sadly, I think I am prone to clichés when describing Lorraine.

When I first met Lorraine, sixteen years ago, she came in passionate about the League of Women Voters. She left and I thought, “That woman is a force of nature.” She was a powerful woman. She had chutzpah…in a very good way. So, if clichés are born out of truth, then, in Lorraine’s case, they work. Very well.

Lorraine had strong points of view and very definite opinions. Yet, she was able to work beyond her own biases and strive for the greater good. I asked Lorraine if she would set up a League of Women Voters’ table at the East Meadow Public Library to encourage people to register to vote. She replied, “YES! Of Course! When?” And, it was done. Many registration forms were handed out. Many questions were asked and answered. I watched and I listened. Never once did Lorraine waiver from her task of encouraging people to vote. Never once did she impose her own preferences on to those who stopped for information. Never once did she offer an opinion when someone insisted on stressing a view in opposition to her’s. Why? Because Lorraine had a clear vision of what was and is important. Voting was most important, not who one voted for, but that you exercised your right to have a say in our government.

One day she came in as I was lamenting what I saw as a crisis in our country. We have lost the ability to practice civil, effective communication. She asked if I had an idea. I told her that I wanted to hire CERRU of Queens College, a highly regarded communication program. Within a few days she came back with funding for the series. She wasted no time in facilitating the project. It was important to her, too.

Right before the third session of the Effective Communication Series, Lorraine came in to tell me she was ill…and…dying. Then she left. I sat, alone, quiet, rattled and deflated for what seemed like a long time. I thought myself too old to have a mentor, but I was wrong. Lorraine taught me so much that day. I went back to work. It was important. She couldn’t return for the workshops she helped fund. Yet, we finished the series. I think Lorraine and I finished them together. I believe this.

Lorraine had many interests and many facets to her life. Clearly, her family came first. She was a great supporter of the Library, education, the arts and, most of all, democracy. She had a keen intelligence and quick wit to challenge and support you at the same time.

Lorraine was one of those people you were always glad to see. She brightened a room immediately with her presence. She energized a place simply by being present. It was never forced, never imposing, but always present.

Lorraine was and is a blessing. Thank you, Lorraine. We will miss you. Fare-well.

A dialogue between one piano and the northern lights. With an upright piano anchored to the rock of the Canadian Shield, at the edge of the taiga, Roman Zavada created new piano compositions inspired by one of the most spectacular and majestic phenomena on Earth. Under the aurora borealis of the Northwest Territories, he translated in music the feeling of the northern vibes he had experienced for over two weeks. Zavada then returned to the scene of his creation, but this time, to capture with his video team the northern lights in 360 degrees and in real time, never achieved before. Acclaimed by the critics and the public for its beauty and originality, this outstanding 360-degree piano performance immerses the audience above the 60th parallel deep into the heart of the northern spirit.
