It is with the deepest, heartfelt sorrow that we write of the passing of long-time reference librarian, Loretta Kelleher. She leaves us a legacy of exemplary librarianship, extreme pride in being a library professional, and a deep understanding of the importance of public libraries.

Loretta Kelleher’s tenure at East Meadow Public Library spanned 56 years. Before coming to East Meadow, Loretta was at the Freeport Memorial Library. In February 2019, Loretta retired after being a librarian on Long Island for 63 years. Her curiosity and love of education drew her to librarianship early on, and she proudly made it her life’s work.

In 2003, The New York Times recognized Loretta’s talents and valuable service to the community with the New York Times Librarian Award. Among the many other awards and honors Loretta received throughout her career, she was named Librarian of the Year by the Catholic Library Association in 1996, and the Nassau County Library System Board of Trustees honored her with their Librarian of the Year Award in 2003. She was an extraordinary reference librarian with specialties in creating resumes and genealogy. Her depth of knowledge and intelligence was astonishing.

Loretta was a devoted genealogist. She was a dedicated mentor to many people who were researching their families’ histories. Loretta was a Charter Member of the Irish Family History Forum, the largest Irish genealogy association on Long Island, created in 1992. She attended the Irish Genealogy Congress Conference in 1997 at Maynooth University, County Kildare in the Republic of Ireland and was a regular attendee at the “Roots” Conferences on Long Island.

Loretta’s librarianship was exemplary and she was well-known for her ability to research even the most arcane requests. Whether it be an ancient quote, a long-lost recipe, or the need to find a doctor for a rare disease, Loretta could find the information. She was thorough, meticulous and dogged in her efforts. It paid off. There was always a positive result.

There was one event, in particular, that catapulted Loretta Kelleher into a local celebrity. She was written about in local newspapers, had filmed interviews, and was feted by the police. Loretta caught a real book thief. Someone was stealing very expensive, sometimes rare, reference books from libraries throughout the Metropolitan Area and selling them online. Unfortunately for him, the thief tried it at EMPL. Through diligent cyber-sleuthing, and unrelenting searches, Loretta found rare and expensive books for sale online. She matched the content of the descriptions, the types of books, and the writing styles promoting various books. Through these methods, she identified and found the culprit. He was arrested and Loretta had a new accomplishment to add to her already bursting biography.

There was so much to Loretta. Her charity toward those less fortunate, here and in the most remote parts of the world. Her kindness to even the most difficult and abused animals was rewarded with their love for her (I saw this with my own eyes.) Her love of music and travel. Her wicked sense of humor and her joyful laugh will be sorely missed.

So, Loretta, we cannot say good-bye to you. We really don’t need to. You will always be with us. You have helped shape so many library professionals. You were part of the creation of our Reference Department’s reputation for stellar service. You exhibited compassion under the most trying of situations. You placed charity as a priority in your life. You led us in understanding the power of faith. You personified dignity. You made many of us better people. We still have so much we can learn from you.

We miss you, our friend. We always will.

May you always walk in sunshine.
May you never want for more.
May Irish angels rest their wings right beside your door.

Things begin to get out of hand, when bigshot “artistic” director/producer/star Jeffrey Cordova joins the production, proclaiming it’s a modernistic Faust. The Feeling of Being Watched

This might sound like an odd trip, but many patrons have requested it. Turns out, they are right! It attracted 500,000 visitors a year, second only to Niagara Falls as the nation’s greatest tourist attraction. Green-Wood’s popularity helped inspire the creation of public parks, including New York City’s Central and Prospect Parks. Tour is on a tram, walking at your discretion. She devised a plan to flee in disguise from their castle, and the whirlwind escape landed her in Hollywood. She became Hedy Lamarr, screen star. She kept a secret more shocking than her heritage, or her marriage: she was a scientist. And she knew a few secrets about the enemy. She had an idea that might help the country fight the Nazis ... if anyone would listen to her. OPEN THE DOORWAY AND DISCOVER A WHOLE NEW WAY OF READING!
Thanks to everyone who participated in our Adult Summer Reading Program, and to those who helped make it a success. Over 60 people signed up for our 8th year of this popular program. Although we had to change things up due to the ongoing renovations, there were some great times had. We discussed popular books including: Last Days of Night by Graham Moore, River of Stars by Vanessa Hua and An American Marriage by Tayari Jones. We watched the film Apollo 11 in the Dome Theater at The Cradle of Aviation Museum, which showed amazing footage of this 50-year-old historic event. We also had fun and dabbled in some arts and crafts, creating beautiful Mosaics from the Sky with Felicia. It was topped off with our End-of-Summer-Wish-It-Were-Longer Party, book buzz and galley grab, which featured a discussion and book signing by Mariah Fredericks, author of the Jane Prescott Mystery Series. Overall, lots of books were read, reviews were written, and fun was had!

The Women in the Castle
by Jessica Shattuck
Tuesday, September 17 at 7:30 p.m.
Location: East Meadow Jewish Center
Please, do not bring food into the building!

The novel tells the story of three women, and their children, who take refuge in the ruins of a Bavarian castle at the end of World War II. The women are war widows — war resistance widows, really — whose husbands paid with their lives for the July 1944 plot against Adolf Hitler. Marianne has promised those who conspired with her husband that she would find and protect their families. But, the support the women give one another is tinged with regrets and guilt about their different pasts, and set against a deprivation for which the world has little sympathy.

For years, rumors of the "Marsh Girl" have haunted Barkley Cove, a quiet town on the North Carolina coast. So, in late 1969, when handsome Chase Andrews is found dead, the locals immediately suspect Kya Clark, the so-called Marsh Girl. But Kya is not what they say. Sensitive and intelligent, she has survived for years alone in the marsh that she calls home, finding friends in the gulls and lessons in the sand. Then the time comes when she yearns to be touched and loved. When two young men from town become intrigued by her wild beauty, Kya opens herself to a new life—until the unthinkable happens.

Tod Browning - The Crown Prince of the Cinematic Macabre
Friday, October 25 at 1 p.m.

Tod Browning was once one of Hollywood’s golden directors during the silent era of motion pictures. He helped make a star of Lon Chaney, Sr. by collaborating on a series of film noir styled crime films for MGM. He was recruited by Universal pictures for Dracula (1931). But his career plummeted after he directed the notorious Freaks (1932) which went on to horrify and upset movie patrons for decades. But what was the story behind this man and his increasingly disturbing motion pictures?

Join us for a psychological introspection on one of the masters of the macabre, Tod Browning.

Rated: Not Applicable       Running Time: Approximately 1 hr. 30 min.

HARRY POTTER'S DAY
The Cradle of Aviation
Tuesday, July 30 - Highlight Pictures
As we continue to mindfully muddle through our programming space mission, we want to thank you all for your patience and good will. Things are progressing, and we are becoming more consistent with space options, but still living a nomadic life.

Please keep calling us for information at 794-2570 x 560. We still will be continually updating this Newsletter with changes. If you have the slightest doubt about time, location, or content, please call us. If you don’t have any doubt, still call us.

Each program description in the Newsletter will have the location listed below the program title. On pages 34 - 35 of this Newsletter, you will find names, addresses, and simple directions to each location.

Please remember that we are guests in the various venues we visit. They have their policies and rules. Often, these are strictly enforced. For those of you who know me at all, you know that I am not a great rules person. Actually, I grapple a little, a lot, with rules. But, I am a good guest.

We must abide by the rules of the hosts. Please, do not be late to a program. Some hosts will not allow entry after a program begins. This, most often, has to do with safety issues. Please, if you do not like something, do not argue with the hosts. Argue with me.

BIG NEWS!!!!!! WE HAVE BEEN GIVEN SPACE AT SAMANEA MALL (formerly The Source Mall, AKA Fortunoff’s)! Our Sunday concerts and many other programs will be held in this new space beginning in October. You will find the directions on page 34. Thank you, Samanea Mall.

Jewish Center, E.M. United Methodist Church, E.M. Fire Department, Friends of the Hempstead Plains Learning Center, EM Benevolent Hall, Hofstra University, Town of Hempstead Facilities, and Nassau Library System.
